

Covariates include district and state white share of population (and interaction); median income; median age; share with some college; log(population); whether the state was competitive in the 2020 election; whether the state has unified Republican control.